

Cohen Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies
USHMM Trip Itinerary
March 2-4, 2012

There will be a Mandatory Orientation Session for those students participating on the trip – Date to be Determined.

~~~~~

Friday, March 2nd

7:45a.m. – Depart Keene State College

Bring everything you'll need for a comfortable bus ride: pillow, water, snacks, iPod, reading material, etc. It's a long bus ride! We will be stopping at a Rest Stop south of New York City for lunch (There are limited choices)

Lunch is on your own

5-6 p.m. – Arrive in Washington, DC.

We are staying at the Hotel Harrington, which is close to the Washington Mall. There are some dining options in the area (including a Hard Rock Café a few blocks away)

Dinner is on your own

~~~~~

Saturday, March 3rd

Breakfast is on your own

Please be sure to eat enough to sustain you through mid-afternoon, as we will not be leaving the museum for lunch. There is, however, a small café in the museum.

10:30 am - Board Bus for USHMM

We have group reservations to enter the museum at 11:00 am. We will be in the museum until 5pm.

3:45 pm – Meet at the Atrium, USHMM

We will meet as a group in the atrium of the museum at 3:45, at which time we will proceed to the Classroom B. Dr. Vincent and Vicki Barnett will lead a de-briefing session, encouraging participants to share their impressions and thoughts about the day.

5:00 pm – Depart museum

Group photo in the Washington Mall

5:30pm – Depart Mall for Alexandria, Va.

This is an old historic town with restaurants, bars and shops.

Dinner is on your own

8:45 pm – Depart Alexandria, VA for D.C.

We will stop at the Lincoln memorial. The bus will return to the Hotel Harrington by 11 pm.

~~~~~

Sunday, March 4th

8:45am – Depart Washington, DC

As we did on the ride down, we will be stopping at a Highway rest stop for lunch.

Lunch is on your own

5-6 pm – Arrive at Keene State College