Graduate School Fair
Wednesday
October 3, 2012
11:30am - 1:30pm
Young Student Center Atrium- Keene State College
Sponsored by Academic & Career Advising www.keene.edu/aca/careerevents.cfm

Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences, Albany, NY (www.acphs.edu)
Contact: Donna Myers (518-694-7186) (donna.myers@acphs.edu)
• The graduate programs at ACPHS are differentiated from those of many other colleges and universities by small class sizes and the individualized attention afforded to each student. This environment allows students to work with faculty members who are most closely aligned with their interests and able to help students reach their goals. Graduates are well positioned to accelerate their current career paths, transition to new careers in health sciences, advance to executive level position or gain the academic foundation needed to pursue a PhD or MD.
• Graduate degrees in Health Sciences spanning areas that include pharmaceutics, diagnostics and laboratory research, Biotechnology, Cytotechnology and Molecular Cytology, Health Outcomes Research and Pharmaceutical Sciences.

Antioch University New England, Keene, NH (www.antiochne.edu)
Contact: Laura Andrews (603-283-2131) (landrews@antioch.edu)
• Antioch University New England (AUNE), located in Keene, NH, empowers those who believe that one person can make a difference. Committed to sustainability, social justice and innovative academic excellence, AUNE helps students integrate practice with theory. All of AUNE’s graduate programs require that students put their classroom-based learning to work solving real-world problems.
• Founded in 1964, AUNE provides three certificate, nine masters and three doctoral programs for approximately 1,000 students. AUNE’s exceptional alumni, over 9,500 strong, hold leadership positions throughout New England, the United States and the world.
• Master’s degree programs in Counseling/Therapy (including Dance Therapy), Education and Teacher Certification, Environmental Studies, MBA in Sustainability. PhD & PsyD programs in Clinical Psychology, Marriage & Family Therapy and Environmental Studies.

Fitchburg State University, Fitchburg, MA (www.fitchburgstate.edu)
Contact: Kathy McKoy (978) 665-3144 (tmanzello@fitchburg.edu)
• Personal. Professional. Affordable. That's what you can expect from a graduate program at Fitchburg State University, dedicated to those in the pursuit of knowledge. With an average class size of fourteen, students work closely with experts in various fields. Fitchburg students represent a wide range of ages, lifestyles, and interests, yet they each maintain a passion for knowledge and a desire to move ahead.
• Graduate degrees include Master of Arts in Biology, English, History, Master of Arts in Teaching and MEd in various disciplines, Master of Science in Communication, Counseling and Nursing.
Granite State College, Concord, NH  (http://www.granite.edu/academics/degrees/masters.php)
Contact: Susan Gagnon  (603-513-1135)  (susan.gagnon@granite.edu)

- Master of Science in Leadership- The Leadership program will challenge students to expand creative thinking, problem solving abilities, and inspire others with thoughtful leadership understanding. Students work on an action learning model, which builds and refines leadership competencies. This degree option is relevant to most working environments and industries.
- MS in Project Management- This practice-oriented program is perfect for those who want to enhance their ability to integrate complex projects, motivate people and achieve cost effective results. The curriculum is tailored for students who want gain expert skills in PM, current project managers who want to advance, and those who seek flexibility in their current career. This degree prepares students to manage and oversee projects across a range of industry and professions.

Keene State College, Keene, NH  (http://sites.keene.edu/gradstudies/)
Contact: Peter Tandy  (603-358-2497)  (ptandy@keene.edu)

What’s your major?
- Psychology, sociology, communications, English, all teacher education options and many other majors are good foundations for entering the KSC Master of Education: School Counselor degree with state certification as a K-12 guidance counselor.
- The Master of Education: Special Education degree is ideal for students who complete their bachelor’s with certification in Early Childhood Ed., Elementary Ed., English, Mathematics, Science, Social Studies and Spanish.
- The Master of Science: Safety and Occupational Health Applied Science degree is ideal for students who complete their bachelor’s in “Safety.” Other majors may also be considered for the MS.

Mount Ida College, Newton, MA (www.mountida.edu)
Contact: Jason Powers  (617-928-4573)  (graduate@mountida.edu)

- With a longstanding reputation for professional preparation and convenience, Mount Ida College offers graduate programs designed for working professionals. The hybrid graduate courses blend flexible, online and in-class learning environments to accommodate busy schedules.
- Mount Ida College’s graduate offerings consist of a Master of Science in Management (MSM) degree, Master of Science in Management for Interior Architecture, and a Master of Science in Management with a Concentration in Management and Leadership in Sport. Created as an alternative to a traditional Master of Business Administration (MBA) curriculum, which typically focused on general principles of business, the innovative MSM program at Mount Ida allows students to focus on the specific areas of operations and management that are relevant to their career fields.

New England College of Business, Boston, MA (www.necb.edu)
Contact: Joanne Lakin  (603- 867-4391)  (joanne.lakin@comcast.net)

- The New England College of Business (NECB) online graduate degree program focuses on providing students with a comprehensive and contemporary perspective on financial theory, practice, ethical values in governance and more. The college offers 100% online, regionally accredited, accelerated degree programs: Master of Science in Finance, MBA and Master of Science in Business Ethics and Compliance (developed and exclusively delivered by NECB).
New England College School of Graduate and Professional Studies, Henniker, NH (www.nec.edu)
Contact: Cristy A. McGuinness (603-428-2252) (CMcGuinness@nec.edu)
- New England College, located in Henniker, New Hampshire, is a private, comprehensive college offering 32 bachelor and 13 master degree programs in the liberal arts tradition. NEC is committed to experiential learning that promotes civic engagement and social responsibility. Students find a creative and supportive learning environment that challenges them to transform themselves and their world.
- Doctorate of Education in K-12 Leadership and Higher Education Administration
  MEd with Teacher Certification and CAGS: School Principal and School District Superintendent
  Master of Science in Accounting-Forensic Accounting, Health Informatics, Higher Education Administration, Human Services, Mental Health Counseling, Sports and Recreation Management
  Master of Science in Management: Healthcare Administration, Marketing, Strategic Leadership, Banking and Financial, Non-Profit Leadership, Operations, Project, Real Estate, Sustainability and Master of Arts in Professional Writing and Public Policy

Northeastern University College of Professional Studies, Boston, MA (www.neu.edu/cps)
Contact: Jaime Gaetz (617-373-6444) (j.gaetz@neu.edu)
- Enhance skills and career potential with a graduate degree or certificate from Northeastern University’s College of Professional Studies. NEUCPS offers 25 degrees and certificates in the sciences and arts that represent fast-growing fields such as education, project management, leadership, and technology. Courses are delivered online, on-campus, or in a blended format, offering maximum flexibility.

Plymouth State University, College of Graduate Studies, Plymouth, NH (www.plymouth.edu/graduate)
Contact: Cheryl Baker (603-535-2737) (cbaker@plymouth.edu)
- Whether your educational goal is to earn your master’s degree, advance your knowledge with a CAGS, embark on a doctoral program, or become a certified educator, Plymouth State University has a range of accredited graduate degree and certificate programs to match your personal and professional aspirations.
- Plymouth State College of Graduate Studies offers graduate studies in Business, Education and the Sciences. Courses are delivered in Plymouth, Concord, online and various locations in NH.

Rivier College, School of Graduate Studies, Nashua, NH (www.rivier.edu)
Contact: Tim Dreyer (603-867-8219) (gradmissions@rivier.edu)
- Graduate programs at Rivier College are innovative and respond to the social, technological, and economic changes affecting intellectual and professional life. Graduate faculty, students, and administrative staff at Rivier College are characterized by their love of learning and ability to develop and apply their knowledge. Through ethical responsibility, they seek to be transformative leaders in an era of increasing global interdependence and collaboration.
- Rivier University offers over 60 graduate degrees and certificates ranging from Education, Nursing, Online MBAs, Psychology, Computer Science, Math, English, Social Studies and more. We offer classroom, online and hybrid learning formats.

SIT Graduate Institute, Brattleboro, VT and Washington, DC (www.sit.edu)
Contact: Rebecca Bell (802-257-7751) (rebecca.bell@sit.edu)
- SIT Graduate Institute equips students with theoretical knowledge, field experience and professional skills. Programs are based on an experiential learning model and a commitment to social justice and intercultural communication. SIT offers on-campus and low-residency options in Vermont and Washington, DC.
- Master of Arts Degree Programs include Peacebuilding and Conflict Transformation, International Education, Sustainable Development, Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages and self-designed degree in Intercultural Service, Leadership and Management.
Simmons College, Boston, MA  (www.simmons.edu)

Contact: Christine Williams (KSC Alum) (617-521-2799) (christine.williams@simmons.edu)

- Simmons places students first with hands-on curriculum that integrates intellectual leadership, career preparation, and community orientation. Simmons was ranked as one of the nation’s best colleges by U.S. News & World Report for master’s-level programs in the United States and 2008 Kaplan college guidebook named Simmons as one of the “25 cutting-edge schools with an eye toward the future.”
- Simmons offers master’s degrees in the following areas of study that include Archives and Preservation, Behavior Analysis, Children’s Literature, Communications Management, Educational Leadership, English, Gender/Cultural Studies, Health Care Administration, Health Professions Education, History, Library and Information Science, Management, Nursing, Nutrition, Physical Therapy, Public Policy, School Librarianship, Social Work, Special Education, Teaching and Writing for Children.

Springfield College, Springfield, MA  (www.springfieldcollege.edu)

Contact: Evelyn Cohen (413) 748-3225 (ecohen@springfieldcollege.edu)

- Springfield College has been a leader in providing a broad and balanced educational experience, earning an international reputation as an educational institution of exceptional quality. Few other institutions provide the same breadth of academic pursuit and professional experience.

Union Institute & University, Brattleboro, VT  (www.myunion.edu)

Contact: Hanna Thurber (802-257-9411) (hanna.thurber@myunion.edu)

- Union offers a number of master’s and doctoral degree programs via low-residency, small-classroom, and online options, including Master of Arts, Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology, and Doctor of Psychology in Clinical Psychology (PsyD).

University of New England, Portland, ME  (www.une.edu)

Contact: Nicole Chase (207-221-4203) (nchase@une.edu)

- The University of New England is an independent, coeducational university. From its College of Osteopathic Medicine and Westbrook College of Health Professions to its recently established College of Pharmacy and College of Dental Medicine, UNE is recognized as a leading educator of healthcare professionals and offers graduate degrees in those areas of study. UNE's academic programs ensure that students have plenty of opportunities for extensive fieldwork, clinical experiences, research, internships and global experiences.

University of Massachusetts Lowell (UMass Lowell), Lowell, MA  (www.uml.edu/grad_)

Contact: Debbie White (978-934-2390) (graduate_admissions@uml.edu)

- The University of Massachusetts Lowell (UMass Lowell) offers both master's and doctoral degree programs, as well as graduate certificate programs, post-master's certificate programs and EdS programs through its College of Fine Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences, Manning School of Business, School of Health and Environment, Graduate School of Education, Francis College of Engineering and College of Sciences. There are more than 100 graduate areas of study and courses are offered on campus, online and at off-campus sites. Most classes are held in the late afternoon and early evening to accommodate working individuals. UMass Lowell is one of five campuses that make up the University of Massachusetts system and currently enrolls about 3,500 graduate students. It is a comprehensive, national research university located on a high-energy campus in the heart of a global community.
University of New Hampshire School of Law, Concord, NH  (www.law.unh.edu)
Contact: Mary Magoon (603-228-9217)  (admissions@law.unh.edu)
- The University of New Hampshire School of Law, an intimate, innovative law school, is committed to developing students who enjoy challenging dialogue from the first moments of orientation, embrace practice-based learning, grow through the collegiality of a 14:1 student/faculty ratio and stand ready to join the ranks of alumni who are global leaders in intellectual property, general practice, social justice, commerce and technology.
- JD, JD/MBA, JD/MSW, JD/MIP, JD/LLM degrees offered

University of Southern Maine, Portland, ME  (www.usm.maine.edu)
Contact: Lisa Sweet (207-228-8142)  (gradstudies@usm.maine.edu)
- The University of Southern Maine is one of the best public universities in New England. Graduate students (2,000) have access to a vigorous university environment, strong research opportunities, outstanding academic and professional development resources and the cultural and recreational opportunities of central and southern Maine.
- USM is one of 220 northeast colleges recommended by the Princeton Review and offers a wide array of master’s and several doctoral programs. Graduate degrees are offered in the sciences, education, nursing, counseling, public policy, computer science, occupational therapy, social work, along with many others.

Western New England University, Springfield, MA  (www.wne.edu)
Contact: Matt Fox (413-782-1517)  (mfox@wne.edu)
- Graduate and professional programs are offered through the Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business, Engineering, Pharmacy and the School of Law. Located in a residential section of Springfield, MA, the university enrolls over 3,700 students. Four 11-week graduate terms are offered, allowing students to accelerate their studies full- or part-time. The College of Business is accredited by AACSB International and offers programs that can be completed entirely online. Combined degree programs include JD/MBA, JD/MSA, PharmD/MBA and the Master of Science in Engineering Management/MBA.

Wheelock College, Boston, MA  (www.wheelock.edu)
Contact: Brian Minchello (617-879-1114)  (graduate@wheelock.edu)
- Wheelock College offers a variety of graduate degree programs for students seeking to enhance their knowledge and skills, advance in or change their careers and make a difference in the lives of children and families. Master’s programs are offered through the School of Education, Social Work, Child Life and Family Studies. All offerings emphasize human development within a cultural context, have a multicultural perspective and strengthen students' research skills.