KEENE STATE COLLEGE
WOMEN'S STUDIES MINOR

This minor provides students with an interdisciplinary program that explores, from a feminist and global perspective, the contributions, ideas and experience of women in all areas of society. The program seeks to actively engage both faculty and students in the examination of and discourse about women's lives in all their diversity, including age, sexual preference, race, ethnicity, and social class. Up to two courses taken for the minor may count toward fulfillment of General Education requirements.
