

Information Technology Governance Keene State College Fall 2011

President's Cabinet

College Information Technology Committee

CITC is responsible for planning, policy and communicating the college's progress in technology implementation and use.

Makes recommendations to the President and cabinet members.

USNH

ITCC (IT Coordinating Council)
ITPAC (IT Policy & Advising)
CIO Council

Membership: Students, faculty from ATSC, staff from EISSC, Library Dean, Director for Online Communications, CIO, and ITG Administrative Assistant.

Center for Engagement Learning & Teaching

Academic Technology, Instructional Design, Experiential Learning

Academic Technology Steering Committee

ATSC helps shape academic technology on campus.

Contributes to the development and integration of academic technology on campus and makes recommendations to CITC

Membership: Primarily faculty, and representation from CELT.

Enterprise Information Systems Steering Committee

EISSC provides guidance and direction for Enterprise Information Systems.

Makes recommendations to CITC regarding requests for new information systems and implementation priorities.

Membership: Campus functional leaders who have responsibility for one or more information system