FREE PROGRAMS FOR AUDIENCES

COME EARLY

• Meet & Greets

Join us one hour before selected shows for informal discussions with artists about their vision and process. Light refreshments will be served.

STAY LATE

• Post-Show Talks

After the lights come up, stick around for informative Q&A sessions with performers, who will answer questions and offer insights into their work.

• Lecture/demonstrations & workshops

Each season we offer a range of outreach opportunities that allow audiences to connect with performers in an intimate, non-theatrical setting. Many workshops and master classes are open to the general public. Sign up for e-newsletters at keene.edu/racbp to ensure you are notified of updates on future workshops and special events. Call 603-358-2168 for more information.

• Dinner and a Show!

Enhance your evening at the Redfern with a delicious meal in Keene before the show! In honor of our 30th Anniversary, the Redfern is partnering with four local restaurants to offer a 10% meal discount for ticket holders on the night of each visiting artist performance. Just present your Redfern ticket to any of the four locations listed below to receive the discount. (Discounts only apply to meals purchased on the date of the show.)

• 30th Anniversary Party!

SAVE THE DATE! You're invited to the Redfern's 30th birthday party on Friday, September 16, from 4 to 6 p.m. in the Redfern Lobby, where we'll be kicking off the 30th Anniversary season and offering a sneak preview of our many exciting performances. Delicious food, live music, and a special guest appearance by one of the season's visiting artists – don't miss out!

The Redfern Arts Center is grateful to Northeast Delta Dental for its generous underwriting of ticket envelope costs in the 2011/12 season.

ASPHALT ORCHESTRA

Music

OCT 5 / WED / 7:30 p.m.
MAIN THEATRE

TICKETS: $27-$11
keene.edu/racbp / 603-358-2168

The Redfern Arts Center kicks off its 30th Anniversary season with the electrifying energy of Asphalt Orchestra, a band that brings a radical new twist to the processional music tradition. This boldly original 12-piece ensemble combines inventive choreography with an infectiously hip sound that shatters the mold of traditional marching music. Drawing inspiration from sources as diverse as Bjork, Frank Zappa, Yoko Ono, and more, Asphalt Orchestra offers a program that The New York Times describes as “part parade spectacle, part halftime show, and part cutting-edge contemporary music concert ... exhilarating!”

In addition to their performance in the Redfern’s Main Theatre, be sure to catch Asphalt’s spontaneous parade through downtown Keene starting at 2 p.m. on October 5. Loud, proud, and sure to draw a crowd, these feisty musicians will march down Main Street in a thunderous kick-off to the 30th Anniversary season. Don’t miss out!

This performance is funded in part by the Expeditions program of the New England Foundation for the Arts, made possible with funding from the National Endowment for the Arts, with additional support from the six New England state arts agencies.

ADELE MYERS AND DANCERS

OCT 19 / WED / 7:30 p.m.
MAIN THEATRE

TICKETS: $23-$9
keene.edu/racbp / 603-358-2168

For more than a decade, Adele Myers has lit up the dance world with a singular style that combines effortless grace with a sly sense of humor. A gifted choreographer working with a vivacious five-member ensemble, Myers uses movement to create expressive narratives told from a distinctly female perspective. Her latest work Theatre in the Head has been called her best yet – it explores the quest for intimacy in a world of spectacle, fusing Myers' trademark theatricality with dazzling athleticism and disarming poignancy. The Village Voice calls Myers' work "engrossing ... it's a rich little world."

GARE ST. LAZARE PLAYERS
IRELAND PRESENTS
SAMUEL BECKETT'S *THE END

Theatre

OCT 26 / WED / 7:30 p.m.
ALUMNI RECITAL HALL

TICKETS: $23-$12
keene.edu/racbp / 603-358-2168

Arriving at the Redfern on a tidal wave of international acclaim, the Irish theatre company Gare St. Lazare Players Ireland presents a mesmerizing theatrical adaptation of The End, a short story by Samuel Beckett. Performed as a one-man show by the masterful storyteller Conor Lovett, The End portrays an intimate portrait of a nameless old man cast aside by his caretakers and struggling to find a measure of grace at the end of his life. Told with humanistic insight and wry Irish wit, The End is a remarkable story brought to life by the dazzling talents of its performer. As The Los Angeles Times raves, "One could hardly come up with a better human instrument to intone the sonorous waves of Samuel Beckett's blasphemous comic prose than Conor Lovett."

GIOIA DE CARI PRESENTS
TRUTH VALUES: ONE GIRL'S ROMP
THROUGH MIT'S MALE MATH MAZE

FEB 2 / THU / 7:30 p.m.
MAIN THEATRE

TICKETS: $25-$10
keene.edu/racbp / 603-358-2168

Nonbinary algorithms and sexism collide in Truth Values, a painfully funny production about one woman's struggle to navigate the male math maze. Inspired by the actual experiences of actress-playwright and "recovering mathematician" Gioia De Cari, this hilarious one-woman show follows De Cari's misadventures as a female PhD candidate in the elite boys club of the M.I.T. math department. This "appealing, nimble-witted performer" (The Boston Globe) presents a comical, caustic, perceptive, yet eventually uplifting glimpse of what it takes to be a professional woman in a male-dominated arena."

PHANTOM LIMB COMPANY PRESENTS 69° SOUTH: THE SHACKLETON PROJECT

FEB 15 / WED / 7:30 p.m.
MAIN THEATRE

TICKETS: $35-$15
keene.edu/racbp / 603-358-2168

Nearly 100 years after the legendary explorer Ernest Shackleton embarked on his iconic expedition to Antarctica, the miraculously talented performers of Phantom Limb Company bring this gripping tale back to life in a strange and beautiful form. Drawing inspiration from Phantom Limb's recent Antarctic voyage, 69° South recounts the Shackleton saga in an eerie new work that blends puppetry, performance, visual art, and film. Featuring a haunting score by the Kronos Quartet, the show conjures up an unforgettable world of ice and darkness, where the only force stronger than the elements is the endurance of the human spirit.

This performance is funded in part by the Expeditions program of the New England Foundation for the Arts, made possible with funding from the National Endowment for the Arts, with additional support from the six New England state arts agencies. Additional sponsorship is provided by the generous support of Peerless Insurance Group.

EVERETT DANCE THEATRE PRESENTS BRAIN STORM

MAR 28 / WED / 7:30 p.m.
MAIN THEATRE

TICKETS: $35-$15
keene.edu/racbp / 603-358-2168

Delve deep into the mysteries of the mind with Brain Storm, a stunning multimedia production by the acclaimed artists of Everett Dance Theatre. After years of research into the science of gray matter, Everett has produced a show that combines dance, video, and a healthy dose of humor to untangle the neurons of the human brain. With scientists predicting a coming “neurological revolution” in our understanding of brain science, this innovative exploration of human consciousness is both timely and entertaining. Uniting the arts and sciences in a mind-bending masterwork, Everett’s Brain Storm is an experience that your gray cells won’t soon forget.

THE ACTING COMPANY PRESENTS THE COMEDY OF ERRORS

MAR 22 / THU / 7:30 p.m.
(School show: Fri., Mar. 23, at 9:30 a.m.)
THE COLONIAL THEATRE

TICKETS: $39-$25
keene.edu/racbp / 603-358-2168
thecolonial.org / 603-352-2033

Mistaken identities, infidelity, and demonic possession are the ingredients for The Comedy of Errors, William Shakespeare's side-splitting farce performed with gusto by one of America's most beloved theatre companies. When two sets of identical twins are separated at birth, the ensuing identity crises result in accidental seductions, daring heists, and more. One of Shakespeare's earliest works, The Comedy of Errors blends the Bard's timeless wisdom with a high-spirited comical verve that never fails to entertain. The Redfern is proud to co-present The Acting Company's performance of The Comedy of Errors at the Colonial Theatre. For tickets and info, call The Colonial at 603-352-2033 or visit thecolonial.org, or call the Redfern at 603-358-2168 or visit keene.edu/racbp.

30 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE IN THE PERFORMING ARTS

DEAR FRIENDS:

The Redfern Arts Center at Keene State College is proud to welcome you to a celebration of its 30th Anniversary Season! For three decades the Redfern has provided a beacon of artistic excellence for southern New Hampshire, delighting audiences of all ages with dazzling music, theatre, and dance. We are proud to carry on this tradition of quality for our 30th season with a series of shows that will enlighten, engage, and entertain you throughout the year.

In 1981, Keene State College inaugurated a new performing arts center, with the goal of providing unforgettable artistic encounters for the campus and community. Since then, the Redfern stage has hosted hundreds of amazing shows, from internationally renowned artists to emerging young talents to Keene State's own student performers. Over the years, the Redfern has expanded its outreach programs and community partnerships, becoming an indispensable resource for the Keene community and beyond.

From Antarctic explorers to wisecracking mathematicians, from Irish storytellers to dancing neuroscientists, the breathtaking range of the Redfern's 30th Anniversary season will offer something for everybody. The performance series starts off with a bang when the electrifying musicians of Asphalt Orchestra march from downtown Keene through Keene State College on Wednesday, October 5. Don't miss your chance to join the parade!

As always, your participation in our season is what empowers the Redfern to continue bringing world-class performing arts to Keene. We're grateful for your support, and hope you'll join us in celebrating our 30th Anniversary!
