Are you ready for the shift?

The world has dramatically changed.

Has your teaching?

Today's students are immersed in the 21st century world outside of school, but is your classroom keeping pace with the real world opportunities to communicate, collaborate and interact with global resources? Join in on the power learning practices available to you and your students! Learn how to keep learners engaged while preparing them for the yet-to-be-imagined future!

Breakout sessions will include exemplary educators representing elementary and secondary education
modeling 21st Century Classrooms.
