

Lodging

Housing is available on campus in the air conditioned Pondsides III residence hall. Accommodations include suite style living, single beds, and linens. Toiletries, televisions, and telephones are not available. Rates are $48/per person, per night, double occupancy and $70/per person, per night, single occupancy.

If you choose not to stay on campus, here is a list of hotels, motels, and bed and breakfast possibilities for your convenience. When calling to register with any of these establishments, we urge you to share that you will be attending the conference at Keene State College as there may be a discount applied to your room rate.
