Response to Instruction

New three day workshop series!

Learn the tools necessary to develop a Response to Instruction framework and multi-tiered system of support and school-wide implementation plan that is based in the Common Core and promotes learning for all students.

Dates: March 8, April 16 and May 6, 2013

Time: 8:30 AM – 4:00 PM

Location: Grappone Conference Center, Concord, NH

Cost: $45/person for all three days, continental breakfast, lunch provided

Targeted Audience: School teams preferred, limit of five per team, administrator attendance required (curriculum director, principal, special education director). Education faculty members from New Hampshire Institutions of Higher Education (IHEs) are also invited, limit of two per team.

Facilitators: Winsome Waite, Ph.D., Senior Consultant, American Institutes for Research; Elaine McNulty, M.Ed. NH DOE RtI School Improvement Coach; Sandy Kent, MST, NH DOE Liaison Southwest Region

Our learning will be guided by these questions:

- Why Response to Instruction?
- What is a Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) and how is it related to RtI?
- What is data-based decision-making and how is it related to RtI?
- How do you run a data team? How do you use the data to make instructional decisions?
- How does RtI provide access to the Common Core for ALL students?
- What RtI models are working in NH? What processes do these schools undertake to develop, implement and sustain their programs?
- What factors or essential components need to be considered before creating your RtI implementation plan?
