All degree-seeking (matriculated) undergraduate students (full and part-time) have their academic standing assessed at the conclusion of each fall and spring semester. A matriculated student is required to maintain a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.00 to be in good academic standing. Grades earned in summer sessions do not alter the academic standing of a student who has been academically suspended, however they may alter the status of a student on academic probation.

(Revised May, 2011)