If we have reason to believe that the information regarding child support paid is not accurate, we may require additional documentation, such as:

- A copy of the separation agreement or divorce decree that shows the amount of child support to be provided;
- A statement from the individual receiving the child support certifying the amount of child support received; or
- Copies of the child support payment checks or money order receipts.

Sign and return this worksheet. By signing this worksheet, you certify that all of the information provided is true and complete to the best of your knowledge and you agree, if asked, to provide information that will verify the accuracy of what has been reported on this form. If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined up to $20,000, sent to prison, or both.
