

The Eight Stages of Genocide

The Cohen Center for Holocaust & Genocide Studies at Keene State College presents

The 2010 Genocide Awareness Lecture

The Eight Stages of Genocide

Dr. Gregory H. Stanton

Research Professor in Genocide Studies and Prevention at the Institute for Conflict Analysis and Resolution George Mason University

Gregory Stanton is founder and president of Genocide Watch, the founder and director of the Cambodian Genocide Project, and the founder and chair of the International Campaign to End Genocide. He is past president of the International Association of Genocide Scholars. A former member of the State Department, he has been actively involved in human rights since the 1960s, when he was a voting rights worker in Mississippi.

Wednesday, March 24, 2010

7:30 p.m.

Mabel Brown Room
Lloyd P. Young Student Center
Keene State College
Keene, New Hampshire

Free and open to the public.

To request accommodations for a disability, please call 603-358-2490 at least one week before the lecture.

www.keene.edu/cchs

The Cohen Center for Holocaust & Genocide Studies • Keene State College