

Wisdom to make a difference.

Office of Institutional Research and Assessment

Summary of Master's Degree Alumni Results from KSC 2023 First Destination Survey

	Class of 2023 (n=34)	Class of 2022 (n=31)
Primary Status after Graduation
Employed Full-Time or Part-Time	91%	74%
Enrolled in Further Education	6%	26%
Seeking Employment or Further Education	3%
Success Rate	97%	100%
Full-Time Employed
Mean Salary	$ 73,824	$ 67,500
Living in NH after Graduation	68%	62%
Working in NH after Graduation	62%	48%
Job Directly relates to major	100%	90%
Employed in current position while pursuing degree	75%	50%
Number of Job offers received
One	71%	50%
Two	0%	33%
3 or More	29%	17%
All Master's Degree Respondents
"I am satisfied with my post-graduation plans"	100%	94%
"I believe that my time at KSC adequately prepared me for what I will be doing next"	86%	83%
"Overall, how satisfied were you with your education at KSC?" (Percent "extremely satisfied" or "somewhat satisfied".)	86%	89%
"The faculty gave me helpful and timely career advice, including guidance related to post-graduate opportunities"	57%	89%

Keene State College Office of Institutional Research and Assessment

Report prepared by Vicki Hurlburt, Associate Director for Institutional Research, March 2024

The Office of Institutional Research and Assessment provides evidence to inform decision-making and leads the College's efforts to assess student learning.