Join us again this spring as a community of learners come together to get academic work done and maybe have a little fun! (darn, didn’t even mean to rhyme that)

7 to 10 pm, either in person in Room 104 of the Library (limited seating) or virtually at Zoom mschmida1909 Password sparky.

We have Tutors from the Math Center and the Center for Research and Writing available at the Nights to provide assistance for QL courses and any writing need.

We’d love to see you there!
