5. By responding to this RFP the bidder acknowledges that s/he has read and understands the information contained within this RFP and has taken the contents into account in the preparation of the bid amount(s) as well as any alternate bid prices.
6. The cost for developing the bids shall be absorbed by the bidder.
7. KSC considers all terms and conditions to be accepted unconditionally by a contractor unless written exceptions are made to specific clauses of this specification. Such exceptions may, however, be used as a basis for rejection of the bid.
8. Failure of a bidder to follow the instructions of the RFP may result in rejection of the bid.

C. Evaluation Committee Rights/Rules of Conduct

1. The evaluation committee expressly reserves the right to reject any and all bids without penalty, to waive all technicalities and irregularities and deviations of bids from this RFP, to decide whether a bid does or does not substantially comply with the requirements of this RFP, to be the final judge as to which is the best overall bid, and to award a contract to the contractor whose bid it considers to be in the best interest KSC.
2. The evaluation committee reserves the right to award a contract without discussion or negotiation if it determines that such an award will result in fair and reasonable prices and would be the most advantageous to KSC.
3. The evaluation committee will treat all bids received prior to the opening date as confidential.

The committee may disseminate information to others whom the committee deems in its sole discretion to have an interest in the bid. In no event shall the committee be liable for any breach of confidentiality. All materials submitted in response to this RFP, with the exception of any materials that both the bidder and committee deem as confidential (and so marked by the bidder) will become the property of the committee and may become part of the public record. Pricing may not be considered confidential information.

4. The content of the evaluation committee's working papers and discussions relating to the bids will be considered confidential.
5. The evaluation committee will evaluate all bids against the evaluation criteria listed in this RFP and determine which contractor will best meet the needs of KSC.
6. USNH reserves the right to negotiate simultaneously with more than one bidder.

D. Evaluation Factors

1. Bid

Each bid should address all sections of this request for bid. The submission must be in sufficient detail to allow the evaluation committee the ability to evaluate the bid.

2. Evaluation criteria will be based on, but not necessarily limited to the following factors (listed in rank of importance): This bid will be decided based upon:
 - A) Adherence to bid specifications
 - B) Pricing and delivery
 - C) Ability to meet the overall needs of the College
 - D) References

E. Terms and Conditions (Also see: <http://www.keene.edu/purchasing/>)

1. Bidder shall guarantee their pricing structure for a specific period of time. If pricing changes, contractor must request increase in writing and all increases must be documented.

F. Termination

1. The Owner may without prejudice to any right or remedy, and after giving the contractor and his sureties written notice, terminate the contract forthwith if any of the following conditions (a.-d.) exist:
 - a. If the contractor should be adjudged bankrupt;
 - b. If the contractor shall make a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors, or a receiver should be appointed over the property;
 - c. If the work under this contract shall be abandoned or for deficiencies not corrected within a reasonable time; and,
 - d. If this contract or any part hereof shall be subcontracted without previous written consent of KSC and the Owner.

G. Rights Afforded To Both Parties

1. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other party and its affiliates and their trustees, officers, directors, employees and agents harmless from and against any and all liabilities, claims, damages, awards, judgments, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of its negligent acts or omissions of the negligent acts or omissions of its employees, agents, contractors or affiliates. This section shall survive termination of the contract.

2. If, because of riots, war, public emergency or calamity, fire, earthquake, Acts of God, government restriction, labor disturbance or strike, business operations at the University/ College shall be interrupted or stopped, performance of this contract, with the exception of moneys already due and owing shall be suspended and excused to the extent commensurate with such interfering occurrence, and the expiration date of the contract may be extended for a period of time equal to the time that such default in performance is excused.
3. Choice of law and legal remedies: The contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Hampshire. In the event any provision of these terms and conditions shall be declared illegal or unenforceable by a competent court within this jurisdiction the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.
4. This contract is one of specialized service. Neither party may assign this contract without the written consent of the other party; and any assignment attempted without such consent shall give the other party the immediate right to cancel this contract except that the contractor may assign this contract with the consent of Owner to any subsidiary or affiliate of the contractor or any corporation into which the contractor or its successor may be merged, converted or consolidated, or which may otherwise succeed to substantially all of its assets; but the contractor shall during the term hereof remain liable for its obligation hereunder.

5. Conditions

- a. The University System of New Hampshire, its trustees, officers and employees will be listed as additional insured on all policies, where applicable.
- b. Subcontractors and sub-subcontractors must carry all insurance specified in Section 3 and 4 or Prime Contractor must insure activities of subcontractors and sub-subcontractors in his own policy.
- c. Contractor shall not commence the Work under this Contract until insurance required hereunder has been obtained and such insurance has been approved by the Owner, nor shall the Contractor allow any subcontractor or sub-subcontractor to commence Work on subcontract or sub-subcontract until all required insurance has been obtained and approved. Insurance required under this article shall be carried during the life of the Contract and for not less than one year thereafter.
- d. A Certificate of Insurance, Acord 25 form, or other comparable form, shall be filed with Owner. Any Certificate filed with Owner and found incomplete or not according to form will be returned as unsatisfactory. Rejected certificates of insurance and copies of policies shall be corrected as necessary and resubmitted until approved.
- e. Every policy shall contain an endorsement stating that insurance company will not, prior to completion of the Project or any policy expiration date shown on the Policy or Certificate, whichever occurs first, terminate the Policy or change any coverage therein without first mailing, by registered mail, written notice of such action at least thirty (30) days prior to termination or change, to the Owner at whose request the Policy and Certificate are issued.
- f. The Contractor agrees to assist in every manner possible, in reporting and investigation of any accident, and to cooperate with all interested insurance carriers in handling any claim, by securing, giving evidence, and obtaining attendance of witnesses, as required for any claim, or suit.
- g. The required insurance shall be written by a company licensed to do business in the State of New Hampshire or on the New Hampshire Insurance Department's approved list of Non-Admitted Carriers.
- h. The title of the buildings and equipment shall remain with the University and property insurance will be the responsibility of the University. The Contractor assumes responsibility for loss or damage to all personal property brought on the University premises.
- i. The contractor assumes full responsibility and liability for losses, expenses, damages, demands and claims in connection with any injury, including death, or alleged injury, or damage, or alleged damage, to property sustained or alleged to have been sustained in connection with or to have arisen out of the performance of work by the contractor, its agents, servants and employees or subcontractors, including losses, expenses or damages sustained by the University and shall indemnify and hold harmless the University, its trustees, officers, and employees, and the agents, servants, and employees of the foregoing, from any and all such losses, expenses, damages, demand and claims, and shall, to the extent permitted by law, defend any suit or action brought against them, or any of them, based upon any such alleged injury or damage, and shall pay all damage's costs, and litigation, judgments, losses, or expense, including reasonable attorney's fees which the University, its trustees, officers, and employees, and its successors and assignees, may incur or sustain by reason of the failure of the selected management company to fully perform and comply with the terms and obligations of any Contract resulting from this Request for Bid (RFB) or Request for Proposal (RFP).

- j. To the fullest extent permitted by law the Contractor agrees to indemnify, defend and save harmless the Owner and its agents and employees from and against any and all claims, damages, losses or expenses (including but not limited to court costs and attorneys fees) by reason of liability imposed by law, Contract or otherwise because of (1) bodily injury, including death, at any time resulting therefrom, sustained by any person or persons or (2) damage to property, including loss of use thereof, arising out of or resulting from Work performed by the subcontractors, sub-subcontractors, suppliers, or materialmen.
- k. Should the project specifications and resulting Contract be based on A.I.A. documents A101 and A201, the insurance provisions of Article 11 of A201 shall apply to this Contract, except to the extent that such provisions are inconsistent with this document, in which event the provisions of this document shall govern. To the extent that they are consistent with or are not displaced by this document, the provisions of Article II of A201 shall apply to this Contract.
